The

American Catholic Historical Researches

FOR 1906

The first law of History is not to dare to tell a lie; the second, not to fear to tell the truth; besides let the Historian be beyond all suspicion of favouring or hating anyone whomsoever.

LEO XIII.

Which if I have done well and as becometh the History is what I have desired; but if not so perfectly it must be pardoned me.

MACCABEES XV: 39.

PUBLISHED AND EDITED

BY

MARTIN I. J. GRIFFIN

2009 North Twelfth Street

PHILADELPHIA

CONTENTS

1. Catholics and the American Revolution 1
2. The Quebec Act 3
3. Canada and the American Revolutionists 5
4 Hostility of American Patriots to the Church 7
5. Anti-Catholic Address to the Soldiers 11
6. The Continental Congress and the Canadians 17
7. Defenders of American liberty express detestation of Catholicity 19
8. The Friends of America in England also Anti-Catholic 29
9. Ireland in the Revolution 33
10. Father Barber's relation of the Anti-Catholic Spirit of the Revolution 34
11. Enemies of American Liberty become "Popery" haters 35
12. The French Alliance 39
13. Dr. John Michael Browne, the alleged Priest of Colonial Philadelphia—Dr. Thaddeus Murphy also a reputed Priest 41
14. The Planners of the City of Washington: L'Enfant, the French Catholic, and Dermott, the Irish Catholic: The tincase map of the City, 1797-8, as drawn by Dermott, and from which the city has been built 64
15. Errors in Catholic History: Catholic Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania: Degrees to Catholics. Father Houdet; Catholics and Corruption; Not the Stars and Stripes; the Cross and Bell of Cahokia; Not the Clock of Independence; John Campbell not a Catholic; William Penn not opposed by his own people in tolerating Catholics 72
16. As Others See Us 79
17. "British Bricks;" the Commodores of the Navy; a Spirited descendant of a Fighting Ancestor; Mrs. Fitzherbert and King William IV 86-98
18. The Catholic University's Historical Work and the work of the Researches 90
19. Western Catholic Historical Notes 92
20. Catholic Historical Notes 95
21. Father Lotbiniere, the Chaplain of the "Rebel" Canadians, who joined the American Army during the Revolutionary War—his Trials, Distresses and piteous Appeals to Congress for his pay 97
22. Journal of Father St. Cyr 120
23. St. Emeric America's name 122
24. First letter of Rev. John Cheverus of Boston to Bishop Carroll 123
25. Rev. John Cheveus reports to Bishop Carroll his first visit to the Indians of Maine, 1797 125
26. Rev. John Cheverus' relation to Rev. Dr. Matignon of his Mission to the Indians of Maine 127

27. Rev. John Cheverus relates to Rev. Dr. Matignon his visit to the Penobscot Indians ... 129
28. Rev. John Cheverus relates to Rev. F. A. Matignon his Adventures while on a mission to the Indians ... 131
29. Bishop Concanen of New York to Archbishop Carroll, Rome, 1806 ... 134
30. How the Catholic Cyclopedia Company makes false history when supplied with the correct relation of facts—how it published an Article on Captain John Barry as written and signed by Martin I. J. Griffin, not one line of which he ever contributed. How it substituted another and inferior article, as it gives statements wholly incorrect and false, yet are signed as though written by Martin I. J. Griffin 135
31. Suppression of Facts the fault of Writers ... 142
32. California and its first discoverers. ... 143
33. First Corpus Christi procession in California ... 148
Convent of San Antonio de Valero ... 149
34. Rev. John Carroll, appointed Superior to the Clergy, protests against the limitation of his faculties—declares this not a Missionary Country—that the Clergy should select the Bishops ... 150
35. California Missions ... 152
36. Paul Lawrence Dunbar's tribute to John Boyle O'Reilly ... 153
37. Charles de Langlade the Founder and Father of Wisconsin ... 155
38. Rev. Francis Neil, of St. Louis, Mo.; Address of Protestants ... 156
39. Errors Corrected: Catholics not Prohibited from walking in front of Annapolis State House; the Puritan did not make Rev. John Carroll a Bishop; how Canada was lost; not an organizer of C.T.A.U. of Philadelphia; Archbishop Marechal's autobiography; Whitman didn't save Oregon; old St. Joseph's, Philadelphia; Paul Jones; Churches and Priests in Maryland and Pennsylvania at Suppression of the Jesuits; no difficulties or perplexities in Pennsylvania; a Protestant interpreter; Protestant Bible in Public Schools; case of Thomas J. Whall; surrender of Cornwallis; Saints' Islands; Old Jesuit mission still retained; Church at Mount St. Mary's, Maryland; Wine and death; Father Dubois and James Monroe; Lafayette visits the Baltimore Cathedral; True Mechlenberg Declaration of Independence; Foundation of Maryland ... 157–169
41. Bishop Concanen, First Bishop of New York, relates the trials and Disappointments experienced since his unfortunate appointment ... 170
42. Rev. Prince Hohenlohe ... 172
43. Centenary of the supposed Apparition of St. Joseph to Fanny Allen ... 173
45. Reception tendered Editor the RESEARCHES ... 177
46. Southern Historical Notes: Delaware Catholic Items; Midshipman Shubrick; Catholics at New Castle, Del.; Plans of City of Washington sent to Bordeaux; Bishop of Natchitoches brings Assistants from Europe; Lord Clifford's presents to Bishop England; Spanish manuscripts at Washington; a Jesuit surveyor; Carroll the Signer against Titles for the President; Catholic Public Free School; First Ordination in Baltimore Cathedral; Chevalier La Touche; Missions at Deer Creek, Md.; a Jesuit's description of Maryland; Father John Carroll refused to be subject to a Superior; Leonard Calvert trades to Boston; Hon. B. J. Webb; Cathedral at Bardstown; Romane Catholiques to be silent; First Maryland Priests; Bishop Portier;

Relics at Georgetown University; First Will in Maryland; Bishop Flaget and Father Hosten; Rev. Dr. Gallagher; Married by Bishop Carroll; Church at Portland, Ky.; Lord Baltimore; Leonard Calvert visits Virginia; First Virginia Martyrs; Charles Carroll of Carrollton and his Son; "Popery" trying to take Louisville, Ky.; First American Martyrs; MSS. of Four Gospels at Washington; Did Archbishop Marechal and Father Brute favor Repeal of Declaration of Belief in Christianity; Contributions of Petersburg, Va., to Irish Famine Fund, ... 178–192

47. Letter of Captain Hector McNeill appealing for relief to save Father Lotbinere, Chaplain in Congress from "want and misery" because he took the part of the Americans in the darkest hour of their distress..... 193

48. The Marquis De Lotbinere, a supporter of the American Rebels; his Son, a Captain in the British forces, a prisoner of the Americans..... 197

49. Father Peter Huet De La Valiniere "the Fiery and Factious and turbulent Rebel," Canadian Priest—"the most culpable and the least converted" of the Priests favoring the Americans; sent to England by General Haldimand; his wanderings; his troubles while Vicar General at the Illinois..... 203

50. Commodore Barry's Descendants 239

51. Articles relating to Commodores John Barry and John Paul Jones—Barry and Jones; Barry the "Father of the Navy"; Monument to Commodore Barry; Truth and Fiction about Paul Jones; a Fictitious Paul Jones; a Fake Paul Jones relic; Founder of the Navy; Speech of Hon. Abraham L. Brick on Bill to erect a Monument to Barry 258

52. Errors Corrected: Ignorance in editing; inaccuracies in the Catholic Encyclopedia; Forbes not the First President of American College at Rome; Commodore Barry's Grave; Signed John P. Jones; Archdiocese of Philadelphia 264

53. The Strange Case of Mary Burton—the Scotch Irish..... 264

54. As Others See Us..... 265

55. Gleanings from the Baltimore Archives, Father Farmer introduces Father S. Pierre to Bishop Carroll; Bishop Conwell meets Bishop Kelly of Richmond, Va.; marriages in Ireland; Father Rantzau; Rev. William V. Harold; feared to be laughed at as a Schoolmistress; Death of a Catholic at Athens, Ga.; Father Beeston; Lord Arundell - Sacra Limina; Master Edward Mayo; Church at Chambersburg, Pa.; Father Marquette 276–282

56. Catholic American Historical Notes—George III "the Pope of Canada." Jesuit Missions in Pennsylvania and Maryland at time of Suppression of their Order; Celebration of July 4, 1806, at New Orleans; Thomas Dillon, Explorer; John Carmichael an Irishman; the Pope and Congress; a Very Culpable Jesuit; Commodore Barry and potatoes; Spanish Grandees descendants of a Philadelphia Convert. 288